Katherine Beaverson reaches for a long shot.

The '88 Lady Stickers managed to pull through a tough season and come up smiling. With a final record of 10-9, Sprout, Trocks and Pencils led this team to the Seven Sisters' Tournament's final round. The game was scoreless after regulation time, remained scoreless for three overtime periods, and ended in a flick-off. Swat didn't miss a single stroke and claimed the championship with talent and poise. In addition to a first place victory, Lee Fineman and Jackie Trockenbrod were named to the Seven Sisters' All Tournament Team. Lee and Jackie were joined by Whitney Nelson in being selected as members of the PAIAW Division III All Star Team.

The women's lacrosse team ended its season with a record of 7-9. Part of the schedule included three of the teams in the NCAA final eight. At times the starting lineup was comprised of five or six freshmen. Carol Staley in goal, Krista Vishio (9 interceptions, 50 groundballs), Dana Calvo (34 goals, 10 assists), and Martha Wofford (44 goals, 10 assists) were all outstanding team members. Martha was joined by junior Cindy Thomas (9 interceptions, 56 groundballs), seniors Lee Fineman (21 goals, 7 assists), Kathy Stevens (39 goals, 15 assists), and Co-captain Robin Shiels (6 interceptions, 52 groundballs) in receiving all-star recognition.

Even though the Tide posted only two victories this season, it had its share of fine individual performances. Seniors Bob McCann, Co-captain Matt Squire, Jay Peichel and juniors Marshall Happer and Ken Spengler received distinction in the Centennial Conference. In addition, seniors Brian Jones, Mark Selverian, Co-captain Duane Seward, Marc D'Arienzo, juniors Bill Martin, Chris Walsh, sophomore Tim Peichel, and freshmen Buddy McKinley and Rob Ruffin earned team recognition for their outstanding play. Although the season was a disappointing campaign in terms of wins and losses, Coach Fran Meagher is proud of his squad. "The team played some very respectable ball games and had several remarkable comebacks. Most importantly, the players showed winning character no matter what the outcome of the games."

Jay Peichel has a leg up on his Muhlenberg College foe.

Over Spring break the Garnet trained and competed with MIT and Tokyo University of Japan. This led to a great show at the Mid-Atlantic tournament. Every team member scored points to lead Swat to seventh place out of 19 teams. Third year captain and Division III all-American Jay Peichel was named an academic all-American for the second consecutive year. Jay is the owner of the second best win-loss record in the 47 year history of Swat wrestling with 107-29-2. Co-captain Roger Welser was also named an academic all-American for the third consecutive year. Roger posts Swat's fourth best competition record with 33-24-2.

With four new infield starters and a pitching staff without high school, varsity, or collegiate experience, the young Garnet squad proved a competitive force under the leadership of first year head coach Marc Peterson. Co-captain and two-time all-MAC catcher Liz Clarke once again dominated the game and was particularly effective in MAC action where she posted a .375 batting average, eight RBIs and nine hits to earn MAC all-star honors for the third consecutive year. Junior Paige Levin capably filled the pitching void and accounted for all but one of the team's decisions. At 7-7-1 for the season, Paige was honored with the coach's award for "courage, dedication, and leadership," and will join Clarke next year as Co-captain. Team leader Jackie Trockenbrod, at outfield, churned out the second highest overall batting average with .311 and posted nine RBIs.

After a shaky 1-7 start in Florida, the Garnet returned home to face a stiff schedule including Division I opponents Penn and Villanova and climbed to 12-9. While they lacked an experienced pitching staff and plied an erratic 11-man rotation, they were a solid offensive machine and compiled a .318 scoring average, 228 runs, 289 hits, and 85 stolen bases for the year. Senior Co-captain and center fielder Bob McCann was named to the all-MAC first team. A four year varsity starter, McCann was the only Garnet selection to the all-star team in the last two years. Other key contributors included freshman Noah Axler who led league averages with .578 and managed 33 hits and 16 RBIs. Four year veterans, senior Co-captain Jay Peichel at left field, led in RBIs with 30 and was second in hits with 36 and third baseman Neil Carey ranked second in RBIs (28) and strikeouts (15) for the season.

SWIMMING

For the first time in the 41 year history of Mid-Atlantic Conference Swimming, Swarthmore's men's team seized the championship title. Surging 127 points ahead of second-place Gettysburg, last year's victor, the Garnet concluded the three day competition at Scranton with 432 points while smashing seven college records. The women's team finished third at the MAC meet led by the 800 freestyle relay team of Christina Lasher, Gretchen VandeWalle, Caroline Soter and Christy Ruff. Senior captain Penny Berrier clinched third in the 100 breast, fifth in the 200 back and fifth in the 100 fly to help round out the scoring. Gretchen VandeWalle earned all-American honors after finishing 15th in the 400 IM at Division III Nationals with a time of 4:45.34.

The women's tennis team captured the Mid-Atlantic tennis title May 3 after defeating Northern Division Champion Muhlenberg 9-0 at home. The Garnet, 12-6, 4-0 in the MAC Southeast, lowered the Mules, last year's Northeast league champs, to 9-4, 4-0. This is the first time Swarthmore has won a conference title since the inclusion of women's spring tennis into the MAC lineup in 1982. Up from the third place spot last year, Swarthmore surpassed number two Haverford, whom they defeated 5-4 on April 17, and four time and reigning champion Franklin & Marshall, who fell to the lady Garnet by the same margin a week later. The Garnet posted four 9-0 sweeps this spring including those over conference rivals Widener and the '88 Southwest champion, Gettysburg.

The Swarthmore College men's tennis team secured a second place national ranking among Division III schools with 72 points, only eight points behind the leader, University of California, Santa Cruz, who was tied with the Garnet in the Volvo pre-season poll. Top performers include junior all-American Andy Mouer, sophomore all-American Steve Tignor, and third-man Lindsay Williams

All in all a very fine season for the men's cross country team. In the 55 seasons of cross country here at Swarthmore, only ten of them have been losing ones. Even though the year started with an unofficial loss, Co-captains Roger Welser and Ken Leonard built a team that certainly continued the Swarthmore cross country tradition of winning. We were winners not only in quality but in quantity as well as we outnumbered the great majority of teams that we ran against. Twenty-six men reported for the squad and only a very few did not stay with us the whole season. Robert Marx was certainly a standout as he took first place in 9 of our 11 dual meets. In two of those races teammate and Co-captain Ken Leonard finished tied with Robert.

The men's varsity soccer team ended its season with a record of 8-9-2, disappointing by comparison both to recent seasons and to pre-season expectations. Eight of the losses were by one goal, and even though total goal production was higher than usual, scoring in very tightly contested games was a season-long struggle. The men's team finished third in the Southeast Conference and was ranked in the top ten Division III teams regionally until the final week of the season. The team's high scorer was Mike Hitchman with six goals, followed by Brent Becker, Bill Inden and Rob Oliver, all with five. Senior goalie Brian Barry posted one of the league's lowest goals-against averages. Co-captains Khalid Mohammed and Rob Oliver both made first team all-Middle Atlantic Conference, the first time in a decade two Swat players have been first team selections.

The team is losing eight year coach Lori Fries, but looks forward to an even more competitive and rigorous season next year. Freshman powerhouse Ann Horsky was the Garnet high score and multiple event winner all season. All around contenders Darah Himmelhoch, Jeanine Ford (vault, floor, bars) and specialists Julia Dallman and Captain Carolann DiPirro pegged prime spots in dual meet competition this season.

Hit hard by graduation, this year's linksters struggled to maintain middle ground in most of their matches, but pulled off respectable performances in championships and against several tough Division I schools during the season. The team will lose Dan Bock, a four year star and recipient of the '89 golf award. Bock was the backbone to a young, inexperienced team and a high scorer every match. Seniors Tom Lee and Greg Kourakos also boosted the squad with consistent play all season.

The Garnet Women's Volleyball team had high expectations at the beginning of the season. The lack of several key players early in the season made it necessary to place many first year players into unfamiliar positions. Theresa Scurto, Karen Wilenski and Barbara Schaefer gave leadership as juniors with experience. First year player, senior Martha Stark, and freshman Vanessa Hill were quickly initiated as middle hitters and also provided a solid defense. Freshmen, Carol Staley, Veronica Schoening, and Marion Greene acquired a great deal of playing time for future experience. Barb Schaefer led the team in hitting with 289 kills, in serving with 31 aces and in blocking and assists. She also received the most valuable player award as voted on by the coaches at the Seven Sisters Tournament. She has been nominated for the PAIAW and MAC all-star teams. The team finished the season with a 10-21 record. Our most satisfying wins were over Division II West Chester University, Ursinus College and a year end victory over Washington College.

TO OUR DEAREST REBECCA

WHEN WE LOOK AT THE PICTURE OF YOU AS A SMILING FOUR - YEAR OLD GIRL, IT BRINGS BACK SUCH PRECIOUS MEMORIES OF OUR YOUNGEST DAUGHTER. WE REMEMBER THE TIMES WHEN YOU TRIED OUR PATIENCE, BECAUSE EVEN AS A CHILD YOU WERE VERY CLEAR AND DETERMINED AS TO WHAT YOU WANTED AND HOW YOU WANTED IT. AT THAT TIME, YOU WERE NOT ABLE TO VERBALIZE AS SUCCESSFULLY AS YOU DO NOW, SO WE REMEMBER OUR FRUSTRATION AS WE WAITED (FOR WHAT SEEMED HOURS) FOR YOU TO EXPRESS SOMETHING THAT YOU NOW DO BY A GLANCE, A SUGGESTION OR EVEN A LITTLE MUMBLE.

WHAT A BEAUTIFUL TRANSITION YOU HAVE MADE FROM THAT LITTLE GIRL TO A DETERMINED YOUNG WOMAN, ABOUT TO EMBARK ON A CAREER THAT PROMISES SUCH EXCITEMENT AND SUCCESS.

WE HAVE ALWAYS BEEN PROUD OF YOU, BUT NOW AS YOU GRADUATE FROM SWARTHMORE, OUR HEARTS ARE FILLED WITH JOY, PRIDE AND LOVE BEYOND MEASURE.

Love
Mom + Dad

Tracy-

We are so proud of you and wish you all the best as you begin the next phase in your life-

"... You are a child of the Universe, no less than the trees and the stars; You have a right to be here..."

We love you,
Mom, Grandma, Dawn,
Nester, & Family

A Tribute to Rebecca

It seems like only yesterday that you were learning your ABC's, and now you are graduating from Swarthmore. This honor makes us very proud and happy to have a granddaughter with so much grace & talent.

Love,

Congratulations Chevaughn!

You have powers you never dreamed of. You can do things you never thought you can do.

There are no limitations to what you can do except the limitations in your own mind as to what you can not do.

Don't think you cannot,
Think you can.

Love,

Best wishes to our beloved daughter, Deborah and her classmates.

Hold fast to your dreams, soar with the eagles,
remember underneath are the everlasting arms of God and surrounding you, as always, the love and support of your family! We are now, as we have always been, extremely proud of each of our children, but this is your moment. To you, our first-born we say, continue to press on. We wish you happiness, success and peace of mind as your star rises.

Congratulations to the Class of '89!

Love always,

IDEA AND EXPERIENCE OF CHANGE

"If the Student is unable to adopt both disciplined and also critical postures, both linear and holistic thinking, she will not be able to perceive that which is to be perceived. A teacher makes this point when she teaches that people have to be flexible and to find the path between extremes and opposites. The Seeker is always balanced between rejection and faith"

TEN LITTLE INDIANS

Ten people are trapped on an island when their host fails to appear. A mysterious voice accuses each of them of having committed a murder and sentences them to death. One by one they die, each death fitting the pattern of the Ten Little Indians nursery rhyme. Tension mounts as they begin to suspect each other. The doctor had access to poison. Lombard carries a revolver. Only the dead are above suspicion. Finally only two are left and each claims to be innocent. Vera tricks Lombard, gets his gun, and shoots him. In a surprise ending, one of the 'bodies,' the respectable judge, comes alive and tries to finish off his rhyme but Lombard recovers just in time to save Vera from the hangman's noose. Novel by Agatha Christie. Directed by Laura Almasy.

Jessica Hines, Joshua Mackay-Smith, Jeff Peterson, Veronica Schoening, Evan Wittenberg, Hal Pomeranz. Not Photographed: Topher LeRoy, Marcia Landesman, Jeff Zinn.

Jacob Mattison, Jennifer Ceriale, Theresa Scurto, Sue Ruff, Julie Wormser, Emily Gage, Lisa Morse, Geoff Hopcraft, Brendan Fitzsimmons, Chris Fortier, John Williams, Chris Cobb.

Beginning with an orgasmic dessert scene, Tina Howe's comedy explores the attitudes & appetites of food and sex. Ellen, chef extraordinaire, starts a restaurant with her husband, Cal, who unexplainably devours the entrees before they can be served. Together they attempt to feed a distinguished and proper couple, a trio of hungry but body-conscious women, and a young neurotic writer and her publisher. At last, the eating phobias are overcome as everyone enjoys the specialty of the house: "Crepes Carousel." Directed by Michelle McDonald.

Cast and Crew: Back: L. Protector, L. Foster, W. Houghteling, J. Shakow, W. Stone, D. Harrison, B. West; Middle: B. Rosen, G. Lerner, N. Bress, E. Gamerman, J. Pizzolo, V. Schachenmayr, P. ## SLEUTH

Andrew Wyke invites his wife's lover, Milo Tindle, over for a drink and talks Milo into dressing up as a clown and burgling the house. In a masterpiece of psychological torture, Andrew points out that homeowners are allowed to defend themselves against burglars and shoots Milo in 'self defense.' Inspector Doppler shows up investigating the disappearance of Mr. Milo Tindle. Andrew explains that the two of them were playing a game in which Andrew shot Milo with a blank. Doppler is really Milo in disguise, however. He has killed Andrew's girlfriend and framed Andrew for the murder, leaving clues for the police to find. Racing against the clock, Andrew solves Milo's puzzle but the police never come. Andrew tries his old burglar game again, confident that Milo's police stories are all tricks. However, Milo has the last laugh when the police do come. Directed by Laura Almasy.

My Fears,
Those small ones that seemed so big.

For all the vital things
I had to get and to reach.

And yet there is only one great thing,
The only thing.

To live to see the great day that dawns
And the light that fills the world.

Notes from the Editor's Desk

It was tough to pull everything together with practical timing since I took on the position of editor in late October. Although the administration was very supportive, most students had already made commitments to other activities by the time things were under way. Those that did express an interest in helping with the yearbook found it difficult to learn from me what to do. Mostly because I had no idea. Yearbook publishing is not all that closely related to layout editing for a high school newspaper. Thanks, Hannah, more than 80% of the seniors are represented in the book.

I am greatly in debt to those that did help. Hannah Rosner didn't get to hear too much praise when she left at the end of the year, because I was too busy trying to finish the yearbook to look back on what we had already accomplished. Thanks to Hannah, we had representation of over 80% of the senior class. I also must thank Hannah for her talent behind the lens. In addition to the beautiful scenic shots she has added to these pages, she photographed some of the Faculty when my appointment calendar full. With her as a backup photographer, we got 100% of the Faculty and Administrative departments photographed. At least all the ones that anyone could tell us about, and a few that no one did, but we thought of anyway.

Thanks to the persistence of Sue Halpern, the organization section was filled. More than a third of the active organizations on campus were photographed, probably a record for all time.

The result of the success of persistence was cramming the book with every page it would hold. An estimate of the length of the book had to be made early. The estimate was made based upon previous yearbooks, taking into consideration the number of campus life pictures which appear in most sections of earlier books. The space problem is manifested in a few ways. One is that the dormitory pictures that were taken could not be fit into the book. Another is that the advertisements, which would normally appear at the back of the book, were moved into the sports section.

Please enjoy the comprehensive index included in the back. The rule is, basically, if the name is in a caption, it is listed in the index. It was a lot of work, but I didn't really want to leave campus anyway.

Apologies to the athletes that went unidentified in the Sports section. These people were victims of very bad timing. When the sports section was coming to final layout, the field house floor was being resurfaced, and all the field house denizens were evacuated. I went to identify the few remaining faces, and nobody was home.

Thanks go to John Owen and Loren Hart for helping me get started at the beginning of the year. A cart tipped over with almost all of the yearbook office piled on it. With their help, everything was rescued.

Many thanks to the Alumni Relations folks for all the support throughout the year. Thanks also to Susan Smythe for the shoulder to laugh and to cry on depending upon the day's news. Mike Gilroy, the Herff Jones representative gets the credit for turning me into a yearbook editor. Thanks to Kate Downing for her very professional opinions. I am also grateful that June and Terri in the Post Office have let me live to this day. I appreciate all they have done for me.

Finally, Emily Herrington, my fiancée, deserves much of the credit for the completion of the yearbook. She helped pull a lot of parts out of the fire towards the end, and she surrendered what little time she had for vacation to do it.

P.S. THANKS, CATHY.
